ARTICLE I

The name of the organization shall be "THE MINNESOTA ASSOCIATION OF FFA." The letters "FFA" may be officially used to designate the association, its chapters, or members.

ARTICLE II

Aims and Activities of the Organization

The objects and purposes of the organization are set forth in Section 3 of the organization's charter, Public Law 81-740. The organization shall cooperate with national and state governing agencies and officials for agricultural education in accomplishing these objects and purposes and the following aims and activities which the governing body has determined, pursuant to Section 3, (8) of the organization's charter, to be appropriate aims and activities with the framework of objects and purposes established by the organization's charter:

1. To be an integral part of the organized instructional program in agriculture/agribusiness which includes preparation for occupations in agriculture, food, and natural resources.
2. To strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and their works by developing desirable work habits and the effective use of their time; by learning to assume responsibilities and by developing personal and occupational competencies in communications, human relations and social abilities leading to intelligent choices of careers and successful employment, including entrepreneurship in the agricultural industry.
3. To provide agriculture-related programs and activities which will develop pride and responsibility, leadership, character, scholarship, citizenship, patriotism, thrift and will improve the economic, environmental, recreational, and human resources of the community.
4. To encourage and recognize achievement in supervised agricultural experience programs, scholarship, leadership, and other individual and group achievements by providing awards to deserving members.

ARTICLE III

Organization

- Section A. The Minnesota FFA Association is a State organization of chartered local Chapters in schools having organized instruction in agricultural education under the provisions of the federal vocational education legislation.
- Section B. This association is affiliated with the national organization known as FFA and accepts the provisions of its Constitution and Bylaws.

In case any local chapter is not in good standing with the State Association at the time of the opening of a State Convention, the delegates in State Convention shall have the power, upon recommendation of the state governing body, to withdraw the charter and refuse such chapter official representation of the State Convention. When such action is taken, the chapter in question and members thereof shall be denied the regular privileges of the State Association. Upon meeting the requirements for good standing, a chapter may be reinstated by action of the Board of Student Officers and Board of Adult Directors not earlier than 10 days after the closing date of the State Convention which it was not in good standing.

In case a local department of agricultural education in which a chartered chapter of FFA is located, is discontinued, the chapter so involved may be permitted to operate officially for a period not to exceed 36 months from the date of discontinuance of the department providing proper supervision and guidance can be given to the chapter by a person having the approval of the local school administrator and the state advisor. Local chapter charters must be surrendered to the state advisor at the end of the 36-month period if a local department of agricultural education is not again in operation in the school at that time.

Section C. An active member shall be considered in good standing when:

1. The member attends local chapter meetings while enrolled in the school where the local chapter is established.
2. The member shows an interest in, and takes part in, the affairs of the chapter.
3. The member pays the dues regularly and displays conduct in a manner becoming a member of the organization.
4. Is enrolled in at least one class in agricultural education each school year prior to graduation.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Section A. Membership in this organization shall be of Four kinds (1) Active; (2) Alumni; (3) Collegiate; and (4) Honorary.

Section B. Active Membership: To be eligible for active membership in a chartered FFA Chapter, a student must be enrolled in a secondary agricultural education program. (Chapters may consider “secondary agricultural education programs” to be grades 7 – 12.)

To become an active member and retain membership a student must:

1. Be enrolled in at least one agricultural education course during the school year and/or follow a planned course of study; each course must include a supervised agricultural experience the objective of which is establishment in an agricultural career. Members may retain their active membership until the final day of the fourth National FFA Convention after graduating from high school.
2. Show an interest in the affairs of the organization by attending meetings, striving for degrees of membership, and participating in other organized activities of the chapter.
3. Pay all current Region, State and National dues by date determined by the chapter, region and state associations.
4. Display conduct consistent with the ideals and purposes of the Minnesota FFA Association.

Section C. Collegiate chapters may be established in two or four year post-secondary institutions where agriculture courses are taught. Membership shall be opened to students enrolled in Agricultural courses, or who are pursuing career objectives in the industry of agriculture.

Each collegiate chapter shall be chartered by and maintained under the authority of the Minnesota Association.

Collegiate chapters shall submit to the state advisor an annual report covering program of activities and achievements for the current school year.

All activities of the collegiate chapter of FFA shall be in harmony with the purposes, principles and ideals of the FFA organization.

Activities for FFA collegiate chapter members shall be based upon the needs and interests of its members.

Section D. The State Association shall be divided into eight administrative regions: Region I, Region II, Region III, Region IV, Region V, Region VI, Region VII, Region VIII. Each region shall have a constitution in harmony with the state constitution. Each local chapter shall belong to its regional organization, and pay individual dues as established by the regional association.

Section E. Schools with large enrollments and/or multiple programs in agricultural education may establish mini-chapters as a subdivision of the regular chapter. Each mini-chapter shall be organized and operated in accordance with all the provisions of the national and state Constitutions. When mini-chapters are operated as subdivisions of the regular (parent) chapter, they shall be coordinated by the officers and advisors of the parent chapter.

ARTICLE V

Procedure for Determining Standings of Chapters and Members

Section A. A local chapter shall be considered to be in good standing with the State Association when the following general conditions are met:

1. All current region, state and national dues have been paid into the state treasury on or before May 15 or show by postmark or other reliable evidence, to have been mailed to the state office on or before April 15.
2. All reports have been submitted to the state executive secretary as requested.
3. No provision of the chapter constitution is to be in conflict with the State and National Constitutions and P.L. 740 hereafter referred to as federal charter. Activities are in harmony with the ideal and purposes of the national organization.
4. The Board of Student Officers and the Board of Adult Directors of the State Association shall have the power to suspend local chapters upon receipt of evidence of infringements on the provisions of the State or National Constitutions. A report of all suspensions shall be presented to the next succeeding State Convention.

Section B. Membership Exception for Military Service: A member who is in good standing at the time of induction into the armed forces of the United States of America shall be in good standing during the period of active service without further payment of dues of attendance at meetings. The time spent in the armed forces shall not be considered as elapsed time in determining the maximum period of four conventions following graduation from high school or leaving high school. Members making use of this waiver of service time for the purpose of maintaining active membership for application for advanced degrees, must resume active membership participation within six months after having been honorably discharged from service, indicating such a desire by payment of dues and attendance at meetings. Members participating in the six month armed service program shall be eligible for one full year of extended membership. No individual, however, may retain active membership beyond their 23rd birthday.

- Section C. Alumni Membership: Following the termination of active membership, a former member becomes eligible for active alumni membership.
- Section D. Collegiate Membership: Collegiate chapters may be established in two or four year (post-secondary) institutions where agricultural courses are taught. Membership shall be open to students enrolled in agricultural courses, or who are pursuing career objectives in the industry of agriculture. Such chapters shall be primarily designed for training their members in the knowledge and skill of advising and maintaining local FFA Chapters.
- Section E. Honorary Membership: Supervisors, school superintendents, principals, members of boards of education, instructors, teachers of agriculture, businessmen, farmers and others who are helping to advance agriculture education and the FFA, and who are rendering outstanding service may be elected to honorary membership by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting or convention.
- Honorary membership shall be limited to the Honorary Chapter Degree in the chapter, and Honorary State Degree in the State Association.
- Section F. Voting Privilege: Alumni and honorary members shall not vote nor shall they hold any office in the State and local organization.
